

First Lieutenant Cody L. Solari graduated from Sergeant Bluff-Luton High School in Sergeant Bluff, Iowa in 2011. After graduation, he attend the Naval Academy Preparatory School (NAPS) in Newport, Rhode Island. After his graduation from NAPS in May, 2012, he attend the United States Naval Academy. graduated with a Bachelor's of Science in Economics on 27 May, 2016 and commissioned on 18 August, 2016. After graduation and commissioning, he arrived at The Basic School (TBS) in Quantico, Virginia with Alpha Company in October, 2016. At TBS he was assigned the MOS 3002, Ground Supply Officer. Following TBS, he attend the Ground Supply Officer Course (GSOC) at Camp Johnson, North Carolina. Following GSOC, he reported for duty at Headquarters Battalion, 3D Marine Division on Camp Courtney Okinawa, Japan in October, 2017. He was the Assistant Supply Officer until July 2018 when he became the Supply Officer. In August of 2018 he was promoted to 1st Lt. In November 2019, he was transferred to Marine Corps Detachment, Keesler AFB for duty as the Supply Officer. In January 2020, he was assigned as the Executive Officer Marine Corps Detachment, Keesler AFB.

