

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

COLONEL MARCIA L. QUIGLEY

Colonel Marcia L. Quigley is the Commander, 81st Mission Support Group, Keesler Air Force Base, Miss. She commands the base combat support, logistics, and service activities for 114,000 military, civilians, dependents, and retirees by leading more than 1,650 military, civilian, and contractor personnel. She budgets for and expends $126 million in annual funds while maintaining and providing security for real property and equipment valued at $4.7 billion. In addition, she manages a fleet of 422 vehicles valued at $26 million and 5,000 pieces of technical training equipment. She also oversees contract award administration totaling $250 million that includes a team of 900 contract employees and ensures the vigilance of 48,000 miles of communications cabling and information technology equipment valued at $50 million. Colonel Quigley serves as the base director of the crisis/emergency operations center and represents Keesler in working with Mississippi and Gulf Coast leaders on issues affecting the base and surrounding communities.

Colonel Quigley entered the Air Force in 1996 as an ROTC graduate from North Carolina State University. As a career civil engineer officer, she has worked at unit, major command, Air Staff, and joint locations in various positions. Colonel Quigley has deployed in support of Operations SOUTHERN WATCH and ENDURING FREEDOM. Prior to assuming her current position, Colonel Quigley served as the Civil Engineer Division Chief, Air Force Installation and Mission Support Center, Detachment 4, Ramstein Air Base, Germany.
