

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT JASON R. BUCKLEY

CMSgt Jason Buckley is the Superintendent, 81st Training Group, Keesler Air Force Base, Mississippi. He is responsible to the commander for the professional development, military readiness and mission effectiveness of more than 4,000 officer, enlisted and civilian personnel from all four Department of Defense services and international militaries. Chief Buckley provides guidance to 7 commanders, and leads 1,300 instructors and staff who deliver 394 courses to more than 2,500 non-prior service Airmen and 500 temporary duty students daily. The group's collective efforts produce over 29,000 graduates per year and directly enhance the operational Air Force's lethality and readiness.

CMSgt Buckley entered the Air Force in March 1994 and is a native of Boston, Massachusetts. He has served in various leadership positions within the medical group and has been assigned to operations, mission support, and training groups as a first sergeant. He has deployed in support of Operations IRAQI and ENDURING FREEDOM. His past assignments include bases in Germany, California, Colorado, Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma, Portugal, Mississippi, and Florida.

Prior to assuming the responsibilities of his current position, he served as Chief, Dental Operations Flight, 1st Special Operations Operational Medical Readiness Squadron, Hurlburt Field, Florida.
