Technical Training

Since 1941, Keesler has graduated more than 2.2 million students, hosting top-tier graduate, undergraduate and technical training facilities supporting all four services. Today's training specialties include cyber operations, computer/communication systems, electronics, air traffic control, weather, personnel, finance and force support.

First Class Healthcare

The 81st Medical Group provides quality, cost-effective health care for more than 27,000 enrollees, including almost 7,500 active-duty members in a 40-mile prime service area. The hospital offers 60 services and education programs with a staff of more than 1,600 military and civilian members and partners with the VA, the University of Mississippi Medical Center and local area hospitals. The 81st MDG operates the only genetics lab and the second largest catheter lab in DoD.

Keesler's Flying Missions

The 403rd Wing, the Air Force Reserve flying unit, is home to the 53rd Weather Reconnaissance Squadron "Hurricane Hunters", the only DOD unit tasked to organize, equip, train, and perform weather reconnaissance. The 815th Airlift Squadron "Flying Jennies", and the 345th Airlift Squadron, shattered mission records by moving 5.6 million tons of cargo in 81 missions in Afghanistan. They are the Air Force's first integrated C-130J active associate unit.

Community Support

- Celebrating 26 years hosting the Mississippi Special Olympics Summer Games
- 2011 "Angels Over the Bay" Airshow drew a record audience of 160,000 visitors to Keesler
