

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

LAVETTE ASHLEY - WILLIAMS, GS-11

Mrs. Lavette Ashley-Williams is a dedicated and experienced professional Basic Instructor Course (BIC) Instructor.

Her journey began at Keesler Air Force Base in the early 1990s as a Communication Radio Operator in Technical School. Her commitment and passion for her career field were evident from the start, and she quickly distinguished herself among her peers. After 9 years of service and gaining invaluable experience, she obtained her degree and took on a new challenge in within public education while earning a master's degree in education. In 2021 she returned to Keesler AFB not as a student but as an instructor in the 336th Training Squadron teaching Knowledge Operations. In 2023, Mrs. Ashley-Williams joined the 81st TRSS, serving as a Basic Instructor Course (BIC) instructor where her extensive knowledge and firsthand experience makes her an invaluable asset

Her intentional return to Keesler AFB is a testament to her dedication to her field and desire to shape the next generation of Airmen, Guardians, and sister service instructors. Her journey from student to instructor is an inspiration to all who aspire to serve in this challenging but rewarding field.

She is married to retired, MSgt. Clarence Williams and they have three adult children, Jonathan, David, and Ashley.
