UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

BRIAN D. JOHNS, GS-11

Mr. Brian Johns is an instructor currently working in the 81st Training Support Squadron, Faculty Development, where he instructs in the Basic Instructor Course (BIC). As a BIC instructor, he trains, mentors, and leads instructors and support personnel from the Air Force, Army, Navy, Marines, and Coast Guard in communication abilities, curriculum development, and counseling.

Prior to his current position, Mr. Johns was an instructor for medical education and simulation training for the 81st Medical Group, Keesler AFB, MS. As an instructor in the medical field, he instructed and mentored medics and nurses in a variety of national certifying courses and active learning scenarios.

Mr. Johns joined the United States Air Force in May of 1993 as an Aerospace Medical Service Apprentice. He was an instructor for the Medical Service Apprentice course at Sheppard AFB, TX from November 2003 to April 2008. From April 2008 to April 2012 he taught at the Center for Sustainment of Trauma and Readiness Skills, St. Louis University, St. Louis, MO. A highlight of his Air Force career was being selected as the Career Assistance Advisor (CAA) for the 81st Training Wing in November 2014. He also served as the CAA for Kunsan AB, Republic of Korea from February 2016 to February 2017. He retired from Active Duty in June of 2019.
