

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

CRAIG S. EDWARDS, GS-12

Mr. Craig Edwards is the Instructor Supervisor of Continuation Training, Faculty Development (FAC-D) Flight, 81st Training Support Squadron, Keesler Air Force Base, Mississippi. Mr. Edwards is responsible for the day-to-day activities of five instructors and eight formal training courses, both online and in-residence. These training courses include: Technical Writer, Training Supervisor, Training Development, Instructor/Developer of Online Learning (IDOL), and the Application of Instructional Systems Development (AISD). Mr. Edwards has a direct impact on FAC-D's 1,250 annual course graduates.

Mr. Edwards joined the Department of Defense Civil Service in February 2016. He was initially assigned to the 336th Training Squadron, Keesler Air Force Base, Mississippi as a Cyberspace Systems Operations instructor. As an instructor in the Cyberspace Systems Operations course, he taught many concepts of computer and networking operations. His students learning about computer software installation and operations. His students also became familiar with computer hardware operations. There he had a direct impact on the courses 600 annual graduates. He also oversees over $300K of Information Technology equipment and other resources. In January 2018, he was selected into his current position.

Prior to joining Civil Service Mr. Edwards served 26 years on active duty in the United States Air Force.

EDUCATION

2005 Associate's Degree, Police Science, Community College of the Air Force, Montgomery, Alabama

2006 Associate's Degree, Computer Programming, Community College of the Air Force, Montgomery, Alabama

CAREER CHRONOLOGY

1. February 2016 – January 2018, Cyberspace Systems Operations Instructor, 336th Training Squadron, Keesler Air Force Base, Mississippi
2. January 2018 – Present, Continuation Training Instructor Supervisor, 81st Training Support Squadron, Keesler Air Force Base, Mississippi