

MICHELLE A. DAVIS, GS-11

Mrs. Davis is an Instructional Methods Instructor who currently works in the Faculty Development in the 81 Training Support Flight. Mrs. Davis was born in Metairie, Louisiana. She graduated from John Ehret High School in 1998 and joined the Air Force that same month. After enlisting in the Air Force, she finished her Bachelors in Interdisciplinary Studies at Liberty University in 2014.

In 1998 she began her Air Force career in Operations Resource Management (1C0X2) in the Air Force at Keesler AFB. In 2011, she got the opportunity to teach the Aviation Resource Management Course at Keesler Air Force base and jumped quickly at the chance. She remained in her career field but highlights teaching FTAC and Professional Development at Little Rock AFB, Arkansas and Kadena AB, Okinawa Japan, respectively as some of her favorite career moments. After serving 22 years in the Air Force she retired in July 2020.

She is married to Ryan, her husband of 22 years. They have daughter named Zoë, and a son named Thomas and a Japanese dog named Yuki which means "snow" in Japanese.
