

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

SARAH A. JONES, GS-11

Mrs. Sarah Jones currently serves as an Instructor in the Basic Instructor Course (BIC). Prior to joining the 81st Faculty Development Flight, Ms. Jones served in the 336th Training Squadron as a 3D0X1 Knowledge Operations Management (KM) Course instructor. As a KM instructor, she taught six blocks of instruction. Airmen learned skills to: plan, coordinate, share and control data. Airmen were also instilled with skills on managing technologies to capture, organize and store both tactical and explicit knowledge.

Prior to serving in Civilian Service in the Air Force, Mrs. Jones was a dedicated professional in the field of Education. She has over 15 years of experience in a variety of educational settings; Mrs. Jones has been instrumental in preparing individuals for professional service in their areas of specialty. Mrs. Jones taught Adult Education at the University of Phoenix and also held the position of Academic Counselor for Virginia College.

Throughout her time at Virginia College, she taught professional development, and financial planning courses in the Biloxi community while serving as a mentor and academic advisor. Mrs. Jones is also the co-founder of a local non-profit organization in which she informs, empowers and inspires the local community to prepare themselves for their financial futures through education and real estate investing. The organization provides emerging skills, education and mentorship for those in need. Mrs. Jones serves the Biloxi/Gulfport community in several capacities, empowering and educating youth, and adults in a variety of ways. Mrs. Jones is certainly a leader amongst her peers!
